IDS NEXT launched in South Pacific with Wanana Beach Resort as first client in Fiji *Expands Customer Base to the Pacific Islands

Bangalore, November 15th 2011: IDS NEXT, global leader in providing technology solutions for the hospitality and leisure industry, today announced their foray in the Pacific Islands through the expansion of its customer base. The Wanana Beach Resort located in Fiji has signed on IDS NEXT as their Hospitality software provider to enable efficient management of the property and resources.

The TripAdvisor certified, Wanana Beach Resort has successfully installed, IDS' Fortune suite which will help to manage staffing, reservations, inventory while also providing complete back office capabilities and support.

Commenting on the installation of FortuneNEXT Enterprise, Rachel Plummer, Resort Manager, Wanana Beach Resort stated, "We are very excited with the synergies that IDS NEXT's product creates at Wanana Beach Resort. FortuneNEXT Enterprise allows us to run a single technology system for our entire operations. With automation of several front office and back office functions our staff can now concentrate on providing an enhanced guest experience."

Commenting on the latest business development, K.I Jacob, VP Sales, Asia Pacific, IDS NEXT said "IDS NEXT has identified promising growth in hospitality industry in the Pacific Island and we are absolutely delighted about our engagement with Wanana Beach Resort. This is a first step for us in the region and we are eager on bringing our holistic hospitality solutions to yet another promising market."

Fiji has been a popular destination for leisure, weddings and business travel. The Pacific Islands offers travelers a tropical destination away from work and has continuously presented itself as a promising tourism and hospitality destination.

Gina Paladini, Marketing Director for Tomahawk - IDS NEXT's partner for the South Pacific said, "IDS NEXT's solutions are one of the best available in the Asia Pacific region, and, their very attractive pricing compared to what has previously been available will undoubtedly become popular in this market. Partnered with high quality local support, we believe that Wanana will be the first of many in the South Pacific."
